WORLD FEDERATION OF YOUTH CLUBS™

ABOUT

World Federation of Youth Clubs (WFYC) is a nonprofit organization helping those around the world whose purpose is to create safe and productive spaces for the young people in their communities. We do so through collaboration with local leaders by providing personalized access to resources, mentorship, and relevant expertise and experience, contributing to their successful operation and growth.

OUR STORY

WFYC was formally created in 2019 by co-founders Rick and Susan Goings. Through their global travels and work with Boys & Girls Clubs of America, and Rick as Chairman & CEO of Tupperware Brands Corporation, they observed firsthand and experienced countless stories of the need of children and teens. Rick and Susan created international youth clubs in Mexico and South Africa, ultimately founding WFYC, to meet the growing demand from other countries wanting technical and relevant expertise. We exist to support those who are doing the important work of caring for the well-being of our young people who may not have the resources at their disposal to champion their cause. We put our resources and expertise behind those youth organizations to ensure greater success and impact across more communities in order to reach more young lives.
